

A Brief Interview About Trust

Interviewer's Name:

Subject's Name & Job Title:

A Day in the Life

Think back over the last few months to a typical work day. What was it like? Tell me the story of that day.

Interactions

Sometimes we need others in order to accomplish what's important to us. Think back on a time in your life when you needed others' help and they really came through for you. Tell me the story of that situation.

Think of how you rely on people on a daily basis. When that goes well, what do others do that allows your day to go more smoothly?

Possibilities

Imagine that the level of trust and quality of your interactions with your colleagues continues to improve over the next year. Tell me a story about a great interaction.
